Information on online fee payments within India.

Yenepoya (Deemed to be University) encourages all students to adapt e-payments in support of the Digital India Programme of the Government of India.

How to pay online using your own bank account?

1. Create your unique 15 digits SID Number as described below.
2. Note the 10-digit bank prefix* corresponding to your college/entity from the table below.
3. Note down your Campus ID.
4. Create your 15 digit SID (Student identity) number. Make sure your SID is 15 digits by padding with zero as per, e.g. below.
  - a. If 1234567890 is your bank prefix*, and 1234 is your Campus ID, then your SID Number will be 123456789001234,
  - b. If your campus ID is 123, then your SID Number will be 123456789000123
  - c. If your campus ID is 12345, then your SID Number will be 123456789012345.
5. Note down your bank's IFSC code corresponding to your college/entity from the table below.
6. Log in to your online banking using your computer or mobile banking facilities.
7. Enter 15 digit SID prepared earlier as the beneficiary account number.
8. Enter IFSC code as beneficiary bank IFSC code. (If your bank does not accept the IFSC code then use the alternative Vijaya Bank IFSC code in the table below)
9. Use the bank's name and address from the below if needed.
10. Choose the option IMPS or NEFT.
11. Process the payment and note down the UTR number.
12. Update the payment confirmation along with UTR number at this link (Important step)
